PRESS RELEASE, For immediate release

23.10.2009, Pristina

The ENEMO International Election Observation Mission in Kosovo is now present throughout the country

ENEMO has completed the first segment of its work. The Long term observers (LTOs) have arrived in Prishtina and upon receiving the one day briefing they have been deployed to 6 regions throughout the country.

ENEMO is applying the International standards for International observation of elections, and within that the LTO's are deployed in teams of two in the following cities: Prishtinë/Priština, Pejë/Pec, Gjilan/Gnjilan, Ferizaj/Uroševac, Prizren and Mitrovicë/Mitrovica.

The briefing was used to have a comprehensive overview on the political and social background as well as information on the role and duties of the Long Term Observers. The long term observers will cover the work of the local election administration, the campaign and behaviour of the political parties as well as the overall situation within their regions.

During their work in the regions they will prepare the ground for the arrival of up to 120 Short-Term Observers which will observe both rounds of elections.

As one of the endorsers, ENEMO applies the high standards set forth in the "Declaration of principles for international election observation and code of conduct for international observers".

The ENEMO observers operate and conduct their work in accordance with this declaration.
